

The Layered Bible Journey

Beginning: Wednesday, January 13th

Time: 6:30

Location: TBA

Facilitator: Dr. Jay Harris

Join us for this 3-week introduction to “The Layered Bible Journey” written by our pastor, Dr. Jay Harris, and learn more about this unique way to experience the Bible, one layer at a time! Realizing that there are definite layers, or stages, in the Bible, will help us better understand the larger plot. Jay will explain these stages and prepare us to peel back the layers. In doing so, we will be able to complete this journey through His word making a spiritual connection with His people. God’s redeeming love for us will also be revealed and we will discover that the biblical journey, at times, intersects our own personal journey calling us to be a participant in the life of God’s people!

Following our introduction to “The Layered Bible Journey,” Jay will be leading us in a 2-week study looking at the topic “Taking Your God-Given Place.” This study will be a continuance of our Sunday sermon series during this time which will be focusing on using our spiritual gifts.*
